INNOCENT PICTURE GIRL IS A RIDDLE.

Miss Ruby Casselman, whose signing of others' names to checks reveals startling cleverness as a forger. More charges were brought against her yesterday.

ONE of the queerest criminals in the world stood before Justice Rose yesterday when the case of the girl forger and Sunday-school teacher, Ruby Casselman, was called. Her charges amount to vastly more than was at first suspected. Complaints filed against her yesterday allege two new forgeries, netting her $300.00 and $84, respectively.

Like the first batch, these alleged crimes are distinguished by an unusual guile, by a peculiar, diabolical astuteness. Crimes there are that require an adult imagination in the planning. The fact is, if half the stories the police tell are true, this slim, immature girl is one of the most remarkable criminals who has come before the local courts for a long time.

When Justice Rose called her case yesterday, a slim, grave-eyed slip of a child stood up. She had been called "pretty," but she is not grown up enough to be pretty. She has that air of freshness and innocence that throws a charm about all young girls. She has the long, dark, wavy hair, the thin, angular arms, of an ungrown girl. Her figure is all slim slabs instead of the full curves of womanhood. If ever there was a picture of innocence it was this wonderful forger.

Her face is pasty; she has that slight, oriental cast that handsome women sometimes have. It is easy enough if you know her for a criminal, but to pick her for a criminal, her mouth is long, and has cruel curves that are heavy and brutal. Her eyes are blue, but not too deep, and are too fixed.

The most peculiar thing was her demeanor before the court. No one could have guessed why she was there. She stood with her back slightly hunched behind her back, looking at the justice. She looked as if a great might if she were about to be introduced to some friend of her father's, a pleasant enough prospect, but not one filed with particular interest.

MURDERER IS IDENTIFIED.

WIDOW OF STORMS RECOGNIZES HUSBAND'S SLAYER.

Sick unto Death in Toledo, Woman Who Lost Protector Through Crime of Employee Says Grover Is Real Murderer—Echo of a Savage Killing Case in Los Angeles.

A dispatch to The Times says that Mrs. George A. Storms, widow of the restaurant keeper, who was murdered by a dishwasher named Grover in a Fifth-street restaurant nearly a year ago, has identified a picture of the slayer of her husband. The photograph was taken in St. Joseph, Mo., and was forwarded to Mrs. Storms in Toledo, O. Mrs. Storms is with her parents in Toledo, and she is said to be an object of pity. Worn to the verge of nervous prostration by the tragic death of her husband, she is struggling bravely with death a second time, while endeavoring to pull a nine-year-old boy through a stage of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Storms may never be able to face her husband's murderer. Her physical condition is serious.

Storms was a restaurant keeper, who had employed Grover as a dishwasher only a few days prior to the tragedy. One night while closing his place of business he left his wife in front of the place and locked himself inside, intending to go out through the back door with Grover.

The wife waited long and patiently in front, and when she finally went to the rear door to see what detained her husband, she found him waiting in his own blood. Grover was missing.

Storms was sent to the Receiving Hospital, where he died a few days later. Grover robbed the restaurant of all the cash in sight and disappeared.

ROBBERS SET FIRE TO HOUSE, GET RICH LOOT.

Family of Dr. Ordway, Roused by Flames, Rush Into the Street—Thieves Enter Then and Take Grip Containing Gold and Fortune in Government Bonds—Make Their Escape Unseen.

DARING ATTEMPT at robbery, under cover of arson, was made at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the home of Dr. W. W. Ordway, No. 1147 East Twenty-ninth street.

Robbers first fired the home of Dr. Ordway while he and members of his family were asleep, and then after the family had gone out to fight the flames which sprang from oil cans and rags placed in the rear of the structure, the bold perpetrators of the crime entered Ordway's bedroom and stole a grip containing $500 in gold and several thousand dollars' worth of government bonds.

The thieves made a hasty exit and escaped in the confusion of fire-fighting after they had extracted the money from the grip. They did not realize that most valuable were still inside the bag, which they threw away.

The grip and government bonds were recovered by the police a short time afterward.

Detectives Smith and Dixon were sent out from the central Police Station, and patrolmen were dispatched from the University sub-station to investigate the daring crime. Ordway himself is at a loss to understand the knowledge that prompted the crime. He had the money and bonds in his bedroom, and did not know that any one was cognizant of this fact.

The incendiary robbers evidently laid their plans carefully, for the entire rear portion of the building was oil-soaked, and when the fire department arrived the house was burning fiercely. The flames were subdued before any great damage was done.

Later—At 3:30 o'clock this morning Sergeant Barker in charge of the University substation, telephoned the central saying he had possession of the value and that it contained $153,000 worth of government bonds.

The bonds were the property of Dr. Ordway, who is said to be a retired physician. They were partly burned in the fire set by the incendiary robbers, but many of the precious documents are intact.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—A committee of freight-house employees called today upon the officials of the various railroad companies here and repeated the union's demands for higher pay or arbitration of the wage scale. The move was in accordance with the determination made by the committee of each company's own employees, since the general managers had decided not to deal directly with the union.

It was expected by union officials that the answers would be universally negative, and that the strike would be called off. The union leaders, however, planned to call a mass meeting of all organized freight handlers in Chicago to decide whether to strike or to remain at work under present conditions.

MURDERERS CONFESS CRIME.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A. M.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Two Chicago murderers escaped final sentence to the gallows yesterday by a margin of a moment. They had been convicted of the murder of a man, and were about to be hanged. They were saved by a technicality in the law.

REVENGE MOTIVE IN BUNKER'S CONFESSION.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 14.—The second day of the trial of former Senator E. J. Emmons, on trial for bribery, developed some important facts. One is that Bunker made his statement of "confession," as it has come to be known to Dist. Atty. A. M. Seymour out of a desire to get revenge on his wife and child.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Mexican Independence.

The independence of Mexico is to be celebrated by Club Hidalgo at a public meeting at Turner Hall Saturday evening.

Temperance Work in Japan.

The Central W.C.T.U. will meet at Temperance Temple this afternoon, when a talk will be given on the temperance work of Japan by Miss Iida Hayashi, president of the Japanese temperance union in Japan.

Raid at Sawtelle.

A party of officers headed by Deputy Constable Jack Adams raided a blind pig kept by a man named Welch at Sawtelle last night. The place is also conducted as a pool room. A quantity of liquor was found in an out house in the rear.

Patrolman Injured.

Patrolman W. L. Hubbard was seriously hurt while trying to stop an unmanageable horse on Spring street yesterday. The shaft struck him in the side, fracturing three ribs. He will be confined to his home for about three weeks. Hubbard was formerly one of the jailers, but is now a crossing officer.

Walking Yawper Landed.

A. F. Grohner, a walking delegate was arrested yesterday for buying Martin Ziegler, who is employed by the non-union tinshop of Christian Spect, at No. 723 North Main street. He met Ziegler on the street, and after calling him "yawper" began to threaten and abuse him.

Mail Carriers Here.

A large party of the Mail Carriers' Association arrived on their special cars attached to the Coast line last night, and most of them are quartered at the Van Nuys Broadway Hotel. They have been at the Portland Fair, and after a day or two spent in and about Los Angeles, will proceed on their way East.

Jumped Her Bail.

Pretty Mrs. Frank Holland, who drew a revolver on a former lover in Arcade depot Wednesday, forfeited her bail in the Police Court yesterday, failing to appear to answer the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Friends of Harry Regan, at whom she pointed the pistol, deny that he had a knife. They say that she slipped her in the face, at which point she withdrew the revolver.

Mission at St. Patrick's.

The mission being conducted at St. Patrick's Church by Rev. Joseph Mulligan, S.J., is attracting wide interest on the part of residents of Vernon and many others. Rev. Mulligan is an eloquent speaker and is well known in Los Angeles where for several years he has conducted successful missions. Masses will be said during the week. Each morning at 8 o'clock Father Melchers will preach in German, and there will be a sermon in English at 9 o'clock.

Denman Identified.

The mother and sister of Joe Denman, the young man who was picked up on the street and died a few minutes after being taken to the Police Station, on Wednesday night, appeared at Pierce Brothers morgue yesterday and identified the body. The body was sunk to the depth of depravity through the use of dope, and his family, who are poor and plain people, hope to secure sufficient money from a friend to save the son from burial in the potter's field. The mother and daughter left the morgue in the hope yesterday and promised to return this morning.

Mrs. Hollister Still Delirious. Mrs. A. L. Hollister was still delirious yesterday at the California Hospital. At times she screamed and raved in wild delirium, possessed of the fear that she was being tortured by enemies. There is great danger that her mind will break down entirely under the fearful strain. She is gradually growing weaker, and her nervous condition is pitiable. The attending physician has hopes that Mrs. Hollister will recover. L. Hollister, husband of the afflicted woman, is expected soon from the East, where he is prominent in railroad circles.

Association Day.

The annual union meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association, on what they term "Association Day," will be held in the First Congregational Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Miss Cora Talham, general secretary, will present the work of the young women's branch, and D. E. Luther, general secretary, will present the work of the men's branch. Arthur Lettis will preside and the boards of directors of both associations will occupy the platform. Miss Talham, representing the largest individual association in the world, has something to talk about, and Mr. Luther comes from Atlanta, where he built a membership from 300 to 2500. This will be his first public appearance in Los Angeles.

Commencing Sunday, October 1, 1931, and thereafter, the rate for "Liner" ads will be 15 cents per word for each insertion; minimum charge, 25 cents, as at present. This slight advance is amply justified by the present Sunday circulation of the Times, which averages over 60,000 copies. (When the recent per-word rate was established in 1922, the Times Sunday circulation was only 14,000 copies.) The "Liner" rate for the daily—1 cent per word—will stand as at present.

BROADWAY FEAST.

Big Department Store Beseiged by the Crowd—Music All Evening and Valuable Prizes Given Free.

The Broadway Department Store held its annual fall opening last night, and the management scored the greatest success ever.

For more than an hour before the time announced for the opening of the store the streets were blocked with solid phalanxes of mothers, wives and husbands anxious to inspect the display within.

Packed in a surging mass along the sidewalks, the eager throng waited, and when at 8 o'clock the doors were thrown open there was a good-natured rush for the entrance, and several big policemen were kept busy guiding the steady stream of humans.

"Oh, isn't that fine? There! I like that," and similar expressions were heard on all sides as the merry throng passed from one attraction to another. The display of fall goods was tastefully arranged, and everyone feasted his eyes on the attractive array of all colors and varieties of lingerie and crepe goods.

Each visitor on entering received a number of tickets, and during the evening several hundred dollars' worth of presents were distributed to the holders of the lucky numbers.

On the main floor Stannin's orchestra played, and on the second floor the "Jazz" band, led by the Watermelon Vine, and other coon songs. The Venetian Troubadours also made music in the music department on the third floor. Mrs. O'Hillery, a contralto of local note, sang several selections, and Tommy Hayes, a bone soloist, gave funny sketches.

The opening was a great success.

BOY NATURE WIZARD.

Reward for Little Wonder Worker and Many Other Children Who are Laying the Foundations for Los Angeles More Beautiful.

THE foundation for a city beautiful has been laid in Los Angeles. The love of the great outdoors has dropped like the seeds of brightly blooming flowers into the hearts of the children, there to spring up to bud, and to blossom into a future of wonderful grace.

CONSOLIDATION PLAN.

A Way Outlined to Achieve the Joining of Los Angeles City and County by the Fall of 1907—Success Calls for Prompt Action.

THE consolidation of the city and county governments may be accomplished by the fall of the year 1907. That is the opinion of the City Attorney's office, based, of course, on the assumption that the people will sustain the proposition throughout the entire district to be included in the merger.

Both the city and the county and towns to be annexed must sanction the movement at the polls. Failure to do this would mean defeat of the project, as Los Angeles cannot make the outsiders come in if they prefer to stay out. But there is no possibility of such result. Already the neighboring towns are clamoring at the gates for admission.

The attorney's office is authority for the statement that the divisions to be admitted can be merged into one government at the expense of bringing the Owens River water to the city, provided a distinct agreement is made at the time of the election that the annexed district will share in the expense incurred prior to the time of its admission.

That would mean that if it were so agreed all of the territory to be annexed would not only do its part toward paying for any future indebtedness contracted in carrying out the water project, but also could be assessed to pay for its portion of the bonds already voted for this purpose.

Section 7, Article XI, of the State Constitution, as amended in 1894, provides that city and county governments may be merged into one government with one set of officers.

There has been but one instance of consolidation of city and county governments in this state. That was the consolidation of the city and county of San Francisco. But there the lines of city and county were practically identical. The problem was easily solved.

A PLAN OUTLINED. Consolidation here, it is admitted, is a vastly more difficult undertaking than that which the northerners had to solve.

Here we have an immense territory, some of which, many think, will be neither useful nor desirable. If we do not want it some provision must be made for it. Then there are many towns to be joined together. Some are incorporated, and some are under county control. Statutes that apply to the admission of one do not apply to another.

But the problem can be solved, and that at an unexpectedly early date, provided proper steps are taken at once.

At the request of The Times the City Attorney's office yesterday outlined, in a general way, a plan for the working out of the consolidation project, as applied to the conditions obtaining here. Considering the complexity of the problems involved, it will be admitted that the solution is both simple and ingenious.

Existing law provides for the annexation of unincorporated territory to cities, and there are no restrictions as to the quantity which may be so annexed from the adjoining county.

All that is required is a special election in the city and territory to be taken in.

Under this statute it is believed that as much of the unincorporated territory as is desired to be taken into the new municipality could be annexed at one special election.

There is also a statute provided for

When Old Sol passed over Abbot Kinney's Venice yesterday evening for his daily trip in the deep, he had blood in his eye. But when he bobs up from the sea this morning his face will be wreathed in smiles, for then he will be gazing upon a new Venice. Rum and the totem have fallen, and as fast as the places of the union labor leadership can be filled the filling is being done. The wedding out process has commenced, but courtesy permits the report to go forth that "So-and-so has tendered his resignation as superintendent of the white-washing department of Venice, America," and so forth.

The plain unvarnished fact is, that the "resignation" was in response to the "request" of the Abbot Kinney company.

Union labor has had its foot on the throat of Venice ever since there was work for the builders. Rank extravagance has ruled in the conduct of all departments, and the promoters of the project declare they were powerless to shake off the incubus. The work had to be done. The date for opening had been fixed. The totem had its emissaries installed at all points along the line, and any move in the direction of reinforcement or reform threatened to seriously cripple their fat plans. To the end that the opening day might be observed as scheduled originally, the evils were borne by Kinney. Top men were paid for labor, and the cow was milked dry on double pay for holidays and Sundays, and time and a half for night work and overtime. John Ince was superintendent of works.

All Venice knows the scheme employed to raise wages out of their boots. One department of construction would bid against another. For instance, work was to be rushed on building "A," the boss in charge of that job would offer an advance in wages to men engaged on building "B," in order to retain a working force, the employer on "B" would be compelled to meet the price offered by the boss of "A." This is but one instance of the manner in which the millions of the dogs of Venice were expended without fair equivalent.

INGLEWOOD FIGHT. The intricacies of the free-for-all fight in Simon's brick yard, which took place near Inglewood on August 21, when knives were freely used, was untangled yesterday in Justice Young's court. G. Prado and his brother were examined for an assault with a deadly weapon upon one Louis Sabala. After a vast amount of testimony had been taken the court discharged the defendants, holding that after being prodded in the stomach with a knife they acted merely on the defensive.

BUTCHARD DIVORCE. Norval Butchard was yesterday granted a divorce from Mary Butchard by Judge Gibbs, on the ground of desertion.

PLEADED GUILTY. Harry D. Bush, charged with grand larceny in having stolen a watch and $50 from one William Stewart, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge James, and was sentenced to the county jail for 30 days.

DIVORCING A LUNATIC. Judge York refused to hear the divorce application of Mrs. Minna Wirthschaff against Otto Wirthschaff, for the reason that the husband is confined in a lunatic asylum.

THE INFERIOR COURT.

TIN-CAN MAN IS ON TRIAL.

ANCIENT ENEMIES GATHERED IN THE POLICE COURT.

Mysterious Burning of a Barn Belonging to One of the Rivals Yesterday While Hearing of the Case Was in Progress—Donnatins Has Grave Suspensions.

For the first time in two years, the famous "tin-can man" of Buena Vista street did not display his glittering defiance of insulting poetry written on oil cans, canvas awnings and real estate signs boards, yesterday.

The tin-can man was on trial in the Police Court for disturbing the peace of the man referred to as his celestial sign.

While the case was in hot progress yesterday with some thirty of the neighbors called as witnesses, the barn of the tin-can man's enemy mysteriously took fire and burned to the ground.

James Stewart, the man "with a king's name" as Allen Brock said, the tin-can artist on trial. The whole tribe and class of Donnatins which includes Paul D. Robinson, a son-in-law, were his accusers.

The tin-can man is in Los Angeles who have not seen Stewart's yard and marveled at it. His house is at the corner of Buena Vista and Broadway streets. It's front porch is screened with an awning which is covered with a poem heaping derision on the Donnatins. Suspended from a post is a large oil can with the words "He was a poet" inscribed thereon, seeming to infer that some of the opposing tribe has lost his job.

The yard is littered with such trash. The origin of the feud was stated in court yesterday to be due to some remarks alleged to have been passed relative to Miss Stewart's moral standing in the community. Then from one thing to another.

Stewart, at close range, turns out to be a lean, yellow-haired man of mild mien. Not an illustrated insult.

This particular affair is claimed to have been a friendly neighborhood "cussing match." Stewart is alleged to have been the instigator of the feud.

On account of the progress of the case a suspension of the trial was ordered for the first time in two years.

Just after lunch, and when court was about to convene, fire broke out in the Donnatins' barn, across the street.

WAS TOO PLUCKY.

RANCHER KILLED HIMSELF.

Dr. J. Lee Hagadorn yesterday entered a claim with Public Administrator McGarvin for $300 against the estate of the late William McCulla, and the reason for McCulla's taking off proved to be extraordinary.

He was a well-to-do rancher and of a splendid physique. Indeed, that is why he died when he did. In the early part of June Dr. Hagadorn went to the Evans ranch in order to bring McCulla to one of the city hospitals.

His affection had been diagnosed as appendicitis, and of course he had to have a knife turned in him and the appendix clipped out. He stated that he was feeling well, but after that it was impossible for the nurses to keep him quiet. Because he was well, and declined to be "boasted around by a corps of pretty nurses." When he would ask for a drink of water and be refused, he would remark with a laugh:

"Well, I'm not a dead one yet, and I guess I can help myself."

And on several occasions he did arise from his bed and go about, foraging for himself. On each occasion the wound reopened, and McCulla proved his dying wish, for blood poisoning set in and finished him.

NO SENSATION.

NO BRIBED WITNESSES.

It was whispered around Judge Monroe's courtroom yesterday that there would be a sensational exposé in the damage suit of Mrs. Albert Plumb against the Los Angeles Railway Company.

She is suing to recover $50,000 as damages, claiming that she was struck by a trolley car and injured.

Her counsel, Attorney W. J. Danford, would show that the railway company had attempted to bribe witnesses to appear and testify as instructed.

While examining the jurors the impression was given that this kind of testimony would be forthcoming, but in the end the sensation flamed out, and only one witness, Francis Fowler, was asked if he had not offered a certain youth $10 to come into court and swear that he had seen Mrs. Plumb setting around without her crutches.

Attorney Bierry for the defense called several witnesses, who swore that within the last week or two they had seen Mrs. Plumb sweeping her front porch without the aid of crutches, and through the open door had seen her moving around attending to her household.

Today other witnesses may be called to testify to her inability to from Stewart. As a matter of fact neither Stewart nor Donnatins probably knew anything about it until it was all over. But Donnatins has dark suspicions.

In the absence of the family, neighbors ran in and saved the horse and buggy but the hay stored there was burned.

The case only had a fair beginning yesterday. It will go on today and for innumerable days until more than thirty witnesses, most of whom are women, have been examined.

FORFEITS HIS BAIL.

SMUGGLER FAILED TO APPEAR.

Frank Brewster of San Diego, who was due to appear before the United States District Court yesterday, to answer a charge of smuggling goods across the border from Mexico, failed to come to time and his bail of $2000 was declared forfeited. Even his attorney failed to put in an appearance.

Judge Welborn ordered a bench warrant issued and increased the bail to $2500.

Outcasts Fined.

Thirty outcast women, caught in the big raid, went into the United States District Court yesterday. Justice Rose fined them $25 each. The fact that only two or three out of the whole bunch could speak English without an accent suggests a pertinent inquiry: How are these women let past the immigration officials?

TO BE TRIED AGAIN.

The jury in the Watkins case in the United States District Court appeared before Judge Welborn yesterday forenoon, having been locked up more than twenty-four hours, and stated that it would be impossible to agree on a verdict. The judge wasn't altogether in a saccharine mood at the moment, and he told the jurors to return to the jury-room and the bailiff would take them to dinner at his leisure.

They were again locked up, and again appeared in court and persisted in their declaration that it was impossible to agree. Judge Welborn thereupon discharged them from further consideration of the case. On Monday it will be decided when the case will be retried.

THE FEDERAL COURT.

PORTLAND MAN AFTER BOWEN.

CHARGES COLLUSION AND BAD MANAGEMENT.

San Diego Man Charged With Smuggling Goods from Mexico Has Sealed His Bondsman by Failing to Appear for Trial—The Case of "Ollie" Watkins.

Creditors of Attorney Edmund Burke are after the scalp of W. M. Bowen, to whom Burke and his wife made a trust deed nearly two years ago.

W. G. Gosselin of Portland, Ore., yesterday filed in the United States Circuit Court a complaint against Mr. Bowen individually and as trustee; against the Equitable Savings Bank and sundry other creditors, alleging that the trustee and the bank have entered into a conspiracy to cheat the other creditors out of their just dues; alleges that the trustee has sold a number of pieces of real estate belonging to the Burkes at much below the market value, and further says: "The claims of Bowen as trustee and of the Equitable Savings Bank have been padded and stuffed, and are excessive and unjust."

The following are a few of the things that Gosselin asks the court to do to Trustees Bowen: To order that he be deprived of any fees; that he pay all defaulting taxes; that he pay all damage to the estate on account of alleged mismanagement, and that he be deposed as trustee.

Now, of course, Mr. Bowen laughs at all these charges and the things asked to be done to him, and will have his innings when his demurrer goes in.

POWDER BLAST PROVES DEADLY.

TWO MEN FRIGHTFULLY HURT IN RIVERSIDE COUNTY.

Superintendent of the California Construction Company fatally injured by premature explosion and laborer also severely injured in singular manner of ignition.

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 14.—(Times Special Dispatch.) William H. Evans, superintendent of the California Construction Company, was seriously injured today when a premature explosion of a powder blast at the Casa Blanca quarries in Arlington Heights this morning killed him.

Evans was in the Riverside Hospital late this afternoon, and is resting easily tonight. He will probably lose the sight of both eyes.

Evans was too seriously hurt to admit of his removal to Riverside, and he is lying in a precarious condition at his home near the quarries. Physicians in attendance here hope of saving the man's life. Evans' face was terribly mangled, a part of the jaw being completely shattered, the right of both eyes destroyed, and the lamp with which the explosive was being placed in the hole inflicted a dangerous wound in his neck.

A small blast had been touched off, opening a space in the rock into which the two men were pouring the powder. Small particles of burning powder and the heat of the rock from the first explosion ignited the powder as the two men stood directly over the hole. A terrific explosion ensued, and the escape of either man from instant death is considered miraculous.

George Koenig, another employee, was just returning with more powder, and received a severe shock from a distance of ten feet. Evans is experienced in the use of explosives, and at one time owned his quarries, which were taken over by the construction company, which is now furnishing material for the San Pedro breakwater.

Evans is well known in Riverside county, being conspicuous on account of his extreme height, the man measuring over 6 feet 8 inches. He has a wife and seven children. The greatest excitement existed at the quarries following the accident, and Evans was wildly distracted over her husband's injury.

Later—Evans died at midnight.

BOX SPRINGS FIRED OUT.

Through the most diligent efforts of the settlers, the fire in the Box Springs mountains has been extinguished. The fire was caused by a lightning strike, and after burning over parts of several sections of land, the flames were placed under control. A great quantity of ash and gravel was destroyed, and the fire is considered very serious. This chaparral retains the winter rainfall, preventing a rapid runoff, and serving as a reservoir to store the water supply on which the settlers must depend. Investigation of the cause of the fire suggests carelessness among hunters.

WALLER JURY HANGS.

After a heated jury justice court trial, a jury failed to find "Bud" Waller guilty of the killing of a woman. The jury was deadlocked, and the case was sent to the next session.

After an hour's deliberation the jury reported its inability to agree and was discharged. The men voted on the case five for acquittal, it is said. The State called entirely on the testimony of Marshall's son, who accompanied his father at the time of the fatal carousal.

FIRED FIGHT WITH WILD CAT.

H. J. Zimmerman of No. 356 Olive-street, Los Angeles, was returning from San Jacinto mountains, bearing marks of a terrific encounter with a huge wild cat. Zimmerman was in the act of shooting a wild cat when he was attacked by a larger animal. He was wounded, but managed to escape.

While fatally wounded, the animal clawed the face of its intended victim, and inflicted a deep wound in his shoulder.

The fight between man and beast had a dramatic setting, being dangerous near the edge of a precipice, and the death lurch of the animal nearly sent Zimmerman to his destruction.

The peaceful hunter of doves is back in Riverside with the wild cat as evidence of his thrilling experience.

WORK OF ROBBER THUGS.

W. B. Barber, a carpenter residing at No. 552 Market street, was discovered at 5 o'clock this morning lying on his back securely bound in the rear of the Southern Pacific roundhouse. The man had been there over nine hours, suffering the most severe exposure, and is now in delicate condition. He is 33 years of age.

Barber was returning home last evening about 10 o'clock, and at his house he was discovered by his wife. He noticed a masked man skulking behind some shrubbery, and walked toward the front door. He had taken but a few steps when the man accosted him and with leveled pistol forced Barber to walk a short distance, where a tree concealed his movements. Here the man being met by three sharp blows on the skull with some blunt instrument.

The man's pockets were hastily rifled, and his arms and feet were secured by ropes. Barber was then taken to the Southern Pacific roundhouse, where he was held for several hours. He was released after the police had been notified, but he is now in a delicate condition.

CORONA.

LEMON COMPANY TO BUILD. CORONA, Sept. 14.—The Corona Lemon Company will increase the storage capacity of its packing-houses by a two-story 500-foot addition.

The company now owns 130 acres of lemon groves and, with the proposed addition will handle fruit from an additional 130 acres.

S. L. Bloom, contractor for the $100,000 Carnegie library, has sublet the brick work to Robert Baldwin of Corona for $2100. Baldwin will furnish the red brick and Bloom the pressed brick, the latter from the local brick plant.

The Russ Lumber and Mill Company has the contract for the lumber, cement and brick for the building. G. W. Van Kirk and family have returned from Siniaula, Northwest Territory.

Lyman is back from a trip to Kansas, Iowa and Missouri. L. L. Andrews has returned from a trip to Yellowstone National Park, Portland and British Columbia. The stockholders of the Citizens' Bank have voted to increase the capital from $25,000 to $50,000.

SANTA ANA REALTY MEN OPEN CAMPAIGN.

Dealers Vote to Raise One Thousand Dollars to be Expended in Los Angeles to Attract Homeowners and Investors to Opportunities Awaiting Them in Orange County.

SANTA ANA, Sept. 14.—The Santa Ana Realty Board last night, without a dissenting voice, voted to raise $1000 to be expended in advertising in Los Angeles, where homebuilders and investors will be invited to the county, where opportunities are awaiting them in this section.

By common consent of those present last night, the Los Angeles Times was designated as the advertising medium for the purpose and its columns will be used in carrying out the plans of the board.

In connection with the advertising of the city and county, it is the plan to run an excursion every week from Los Angeles and this city on each Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Evans is well known in Riverside county, being conspicuous on account of his extreme height, the man measuring over 6 feet 8 inches. He has a wife and seven children. The greatest excitement existed at the quarries following the accident, and Evans was wildly distracted over her husband's injury.

Owing to Barber's age and the seriousness of the injury, it is feared pneumonia will result. During the fight, which ensued, Barber was struck on the face of one of his assailants, and was able to give a fairly good description to the police today.

It is believed that Barber was mistaken for a neighbor who had carried large sums of money to his home at night. Less than $2 was found on Barber's person, and the man had fortunately forgotten his watch when he left home last evening.

FULLERTON.

REPORT ORANGE TREES CLEAN. FULLERTON, Sept. 14.—The orange trees in the Fullerton and Placentia districts are reported to be in better condition now than before in many years, partly due to the efforts of the growers to keep them free from pests. Many growers who fumigated almost exclusively a few years ago are now spraying the trees with a fine thoroughfare from here to Los Angeles. The finished oiling of the south end of Riverside avenue completes a good driveway to Colton. These and other improvements on the thoroughfares afford the community a superb system of highways.

The making of artificial stone is an industry recently established here by Dr. C. Manuel. The stone is made of a combination of Lyle Creek sand and cement.

WOMEN SLEUTHS' RECORDS. COLTON, Sept. 14.—Women sleuths are making records in their efforts to catch the freights of the past fortnight. They are prophesied for any man of questionable appearance who wanders unprotected through the residence district by day, or is declared that the women will get him.

In the alley where he was most often seen, the women were waiting a daring hold-up. Six times in the course of the night was a man, commonly known as "Duke," taken into the alleys and barns to make sure that all was well. Six times did he escape, and on the last trip he had an exciting adventure.

He was wandering down the alley, revolver in hand, very much worried, when he saw a man, who he saw near at hand the form of a human being—mayhap that long-looked-for "bug."

He clutched his revolver tightly and approached.

At the same time the moonlight revealed something in the hands of the stranger, and a pistol was thrust forward.

Then the two men stopped, gazed at each other, retreated a few steps and finally fled.

The "stranger" was Deputy City Marshal John Neely looking for his revolver and sent them to his City Board had Dr. F. H. Pritchard took several samples from various parts of town and sent them to the State Hygienic Station at Berkeley. After an examination, A. R. Ward, chief chemist, reported that there are no disease-breeding bacteria or germs in the water.

Shot Full of Holes.

"I am 65 years old, and have been a great sufferer from headache all my life. One of Dr. Miles' circulars was left at my door, and what it contained about headache interested me, so that I determined to invest a dollar in their make of shot, and go gunning for that headache. The first charge brought it down, but I continued to shoot until the thing was shot so full of holes that I believe I will never come to life again. I consider it the work of a 'good Samaritan,' to spread the knowledge of what Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will do."

L. F. MOORE,

1352 Fairfax Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.
